NAFECO

our story

NAFECO was founded by Mr. Jerrell Oaks in 1968 in Decatur, Alabama. What started as a father trying to support his young family by servicing the needs of local fire departments has grown into a multi-state operation dedicated to the public safety industry.

The motto "Providing Solutions" is much more than a tag line. It is the foundation of NAFECO. When no one else was willing to go that extra mile in providing outstanding service, Mr. Oaks earned the respect and loyalty from his customers.

Today, the entire NAFECO team shares this philosophy.

our headquarters

As a support to the local showrooms, if needed, this facility also provides a full customization department staffed with experienced tailors, seamstresses and embroidery experts.

NAFECO our Florida facility

Combined with the Decatur headquarters and the personal commitment from the Orlando team, the ACFR will receive the attention and finest quality service our heroes deserve!
