Training or Experience Related to the Appointment:

Seven years working as outreach/grant evaluation of sports foundation providing funding for outdoor recreation and conservation spaces, Three years in Newberry working with City leaders to secure Wild Spaces Public Places funding for Easton Newberry Sports Complex, developed 7 additional sports complexes across the county using public/private funds, 10 years in the hunting industry working with state and federal aid to conserve land.

What contributions do you feel you could make if you were selected for this board?

Being a land conversationalist in the outdoor recreation industry, I feel I could evaluate funding proposals fairly and with an eye towards multi-use. Being a long term resident, I've seen and played a part of many trends in outdoor recreation and land conservation efforts. I recognize the value of using public funds, and of holding stakeholders accountable for the use of those funds.
