4. How has stakeholder input/ feedback been incorporated into the recommendations being presented to the County Commission?

The update of the Comprehensive Plan has involved a wide range of public input over the past two and a half years. Public input was provided on a variety of issues at the 28 BoCC workshops which have been held by the County. Input was also provided throughout the process by the County's Citizen Advisory Boards, community groups, and the Affordable Housing Work Group. All public input was considered by the County Commission and by staff in the preparation of the proposed updates to the Comprehensive Plan.
