No.	Case Style	Type of Action	Attorney
1.	Alachua County, Plaintiff vs. Emmanuel Wood, Defendant --Not yet filed--	Small claims	Bob Swain

The County Attorney seeks authority to initiate litigation in the Small Claims Division of the Eighth Judicial Circuit against a former employee, Emmanuel Wood. During Mr. Wood's employment, he requested funds from Alachua County to pay for his attendance at certain training which was not required for his job position. Mr. Wood agreed that if he left the employ of Alachua County within two years of the training, that he would repay, on a pro rata basis, the amount of funds advanced for the training. At the time of his separation from Alachua County, the amount owed by Mr. Wood was $1,900.34. On August 20, 2019, Alachua County offered to Mr. Wood a monthly repayment plan of $158.36, said agreement set out in a Promissory Note mailed to Mr. Wood on August 20, 2019. To date, no response has been received from this former employee, and the amount remains outstanding.
