This property will be managed as an addition to Lake Alto Preserve, therefore, many of the management costs will be shared with the rest of the Preserve. Public access will be available upon request, with parking at Lake Alto South and amenities limited to a kiosk and nature trail for the foreseeable future. The uplands on the property were cleared and in agriculture since the 1938 aerials, our earliest aerials. They appear to be old pasture with a small area of more intensive agriculture that has grown up in loblolly pines. Staff recommends the maintaining the uplands for the foreseeable future as pine plantation. The wetlands are in very good condition and are part of the Outstanding Florida Waters associated with the Santa Fe River System. The wetlands will be managed to protect the water quality in Lake Santa Fe, provide wildlife habitat, and to maintain the scenic view shed of the Lake.
