What contributions do you feel you could make if you were recommended to the Governor to this board?

I strongly believe that the combination of business experience in Alachua County for 37 years, passion for working with kids and programs that help them succeed, knowledge of the community & many organizations within will help me listen and comprehend the multiple needs and solutions for the youth issues we face.

I enjoy start up organizations and believe the Children's Trust has an incredible opportunity to find solutions for the challenges our children have in this community.
