What Contributions do you feel you could make if you were selected to this board?

If I were selected to serve on the Human Rights Board, I am confident that my experience as a civil litigation paralegal would allow me to appropriately evaluate and provided feedback on discrimination complaints based on the governing law and the facts at issue. I understand the importance of confidentiality and possess the ability to place emotion aside in order to remain an unbiased party to the issue(s). Aside from my work experience, I have personally navigated single motherhood for the past 8 years, while maintaining full-time employment and part-time schooling with my eye set on law school in the near future. However, lately, it has been hard to suppress my desire to serve a greater cause in my community. To say that I possess a passion for the cause and the dedication to serve would be an understatement. Personally, I have a learning mindset and value the opinions of others. However, I also am straightforward and am comfortable making decisions without influence from others.
