Yes, I agree with Pat. Based on current capitalization thresholds this would be capitalized as improvements other than buildings.

Hi Paul,
I believe it should be capitalized as improvements other than buildings. I have copied Todd just in case he thinks differently.

Hi Pat,

I have been asked to create a POR for a new subproject out at Cuscowilla. It would be a TBD for $60,000 to build a new rock wall structure. Can you tell me if this would be capital or suggest someone who might know?

Thank you,

Paul
