County Historical Commission Vacancy

August 25, 2021

2:30 p.m.

ALACHUA COUNTY, FL - The Alachua County Historical Commission (ACHC) currently has one vacancy for the position of Citizen at Large. County residents with a knowledge of local history are encourage to apply, and appointments will be made by the County Commission. The application deadline is September 9, 2021. At this time, in-person quorums are required, so new applicants should be able to attend in person.

The mission of the ACHC is "to promote, preserve and protect Alachua County's historic resources." The Board provides research and recommendations to the Alachua County Commission on matters related to County history. The Historical Commission provides leadership in advancing the identification, protection, preservation, and interpretation of Alachua County's cultural heritage. They provide historical research and provide documentation as needed for exhibits, educational programs, and pamphlets about County history. They may assist local organizations such as museums, libraries and archives, historical, archaeological, genealogical societies, and other institutions with historical objectives.
