CARES Act Funding

Commissioner Cornell stated that on Tuesday with the CARES Act Funding action he would like to modify two items. He would like the Board to change that any grant recipients must be complying with the County's Emergency Order and that for companies that have been forced to close under the Governor's Order should be able to qualify.

County Manager Lieberman stated that the program is still be developed so there is time for the Board to discuss the matter and make changes without effect the process.

There being no further business before the Board the meeting was adjourned at 1:03 P.M.
