The financial commitment was not amended, and the grant funds remain $121,500 from July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020, and is retroactive.

The grant is used to support 2.25 FTE's, operating expenses to provide rape crisis center services in Bradford and Union Counties, afterhours in-person response services to sexual assault victims, advertising, training and employee/volunteer background checks.

In 2003, the Florida legislature began designating funds to support Florida's certified rape crisis centers. Alachua County Board of County Commissioners Victim Services & Rape Crisis Center (VSRCC) was one of the original rape crisis centers in the state to receive this funding. The grant allows for the provision of services to sexual assault survivors and their families. VSRCC serves Alachua, Bradford and Union Counties
