Background:

The Alachua County Crisis Center answers a local suicide and crisis hotline, takes calls from the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline, now referred to as 988 the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline. Additionally, the Center provides mobile crisis response services and provides face to face counseling services via tele-health and walk in service. During times of natural and other disasters, the Center answers calls to the 311 Critical Information line. Historically, these services have been provided by a base of 100+ volunteers supervised and supported by paid staff.

In December 2018, Lutheran Services of Florida began providing Alachua County with funding to provide Mobile Response Team services for young people under the age of 25. Since then, Lutheran Services of Florida has increased funding for Mobile Response Team services and to increase staffing for 988 implementation. Following the start of the new State budget year, July 1, 2022, Lutheran Services of Florida increased the funding for 988 implementation. See 9/13/22 agenda item # 22-0732
