Background:

Alachua County Fire Rescue purchases uniforms for operational personnel. The estimated annual budget for uniforms (excluding bunker gear) is approximately $140,000.00. After staff review, Galls and Dana Safety were determined to be the lowest and most responsive bidders. It was also determined that due to significant price difference, that the t-shirts and wildland Nomex items should be excluded from the bid. RadWear currently provides t-shirts and Plexus provides wildland Nomex items at a significant cost savings over the next lowest bidder.
