Background:

LSF provides funding for Mobile Response Team's that respond to anyone under the age of 25 experiencing a crisis situation, 24 hours day. The local schools frequently request mobile response services and the Teams also work closely with law enforcement and the Co-responder teams. Additionally, funds are provided to support the operation of Metamorphosis, a long term substance abuse treatment program. Funding for the new 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline line is also provided. Between the local hotline number and 988, the Center answers over 45,000 calls annually.
